

Robert Elliot line

as of 2/2/2012, nothing is sure.

ELIOT.

Hon. Robert Eliot was born in 1643 and is first mentioned 13 Jan. 1660. In 1662 he was appointed Constable for Strawberry Bank. He lived in Portsmouth, now Newcastle, N. H., Scarborough, Me., and on Gerrish's Island in his last days. Was selectman in Portsmouth in 1679 and 1680, and in Scarborough in 1682 and town's Deputy to General Court in 1685. In 1692 he was appointed one of the Councillors of New Hampshire and held that office with the exception of one year till 1715. Timothy Gerrish recorded in his family Bible: "My father-in-law, Robert Eliot, Dyed in 82 year of his age in March 24th 1724."

A court record, dated 29 May 1683, speaks of "Robert Eliot, who married the relict and administratrix of Ric. Young of Cape Porpus." He and wife Margery deeded land, 13 June 1687, to son-in-law, Emanuel Davis, and Mary his wife. This Mary was probably daughter of Richard and Margery (Batson) Young. In a Bill of Sale, dated 7 June 1692, Robert Eliot names "my wife whose maiden name was Margery Batson." She was daughter of Stephen Batson of Cape Porpoise, whose will names daughter Margery Young.

Reverend William Screven, while at Kittery, in a letter to the Baptist church in Boston dated September 13, 1682, mentions the fact that his mother-in-law (Mrs. Champernowne) had become a Baptist. After the death of Captain Champernowne, Mrs. Champernowne, with Humphrey Elliot and his family, removed to South Carolina and joined the Screvens, who went to South Carolina in 1684.

Robert Elliot, oldest son of Humphrey Elliot, married¹ (1), February 5, 1720–21, Elizabeth Screven, daughter of Reverend William and Bridget (Cutts) Screven. Robert Elliot resided in Berkley county South Carolina. He held the office of tax commissioner in 1720, and for several years following. His will, dated July 15, 1727, was proved January 11, 1727–28. His mother, Elizabeth (Cutts) Elliot, after the death of her husband, married Robert Witherick, of Somerton, South Carolina.¹ Champernowne Elliot signed his mother's bond in 1718, and is frequently mentioned in the records of South Carolina, 1720–25, as deputy to the surveyor general. “Captain Francis Champernowne was the ninth child and youngest son of Arthur Champernowne by his wife Bridget, daughter of Sir Thomas Fulford. He was born in the parish of Dartington, Devonshire, where he was baptised in October, 1614. He was a relative of Sir Humphrey Gilbert and Sir Walter Raleigh, whose mother was Katharine, sister of Sir Arthur Champernowne, the great-grandfather of Francis. He came to New England, and settled at Kittery, Maine. He died between November, 1686, and September 20th, 1687. His will is printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. xxvii. pp. 146–8. Mr. Tuttle contributed a series of articles on Francis Champernowne and his ancestry to the above-named periodical, vol. xxviii. pp. 75–82, 318–23, 403–9. He left in manuscript a work on The Life and Times of Captain Francis Champernowne, now in the possession of his widow, Mrs. Mary P. Tuttle, which it is hoped may before long be published.”

Humphrey is a Champernowne name.

[DANIEL GOODWIN married, first, Margaret, daughter of Thomas Spencer of Kittery, Maine: secondly, Mrs. Sarah, daughter of John Sanders, and widow of Peter Turbet. After Turbet's death in 1661, she was courted by Robert Elliot, and this courtship was entered into with so much fervency and earnestness that the marriage was considered certain. Accordingly Elliot, as being the sure future husband of the widow, was appointed administrator on Turbet's estate. But the Court Records show that, in July, 1772. "Whereas
" former administration was granted Robert Elliot
" on Peter Turbet's estate, deceased, in relation to " his marrying the said Turbet's widow, which he
" not doing, the said administration is null, and
" this Court, from the desire of said Peter Turbet's
" widow, grants administration to his son John."
In 1679, Daniel Goodwin, planter, conveyed land to his daughter, Mrs Daniel Stone, and also to his son, Daniel. In 1683, he conveyed land, in the parish of Berwick, town of Kittery, Maine, to his sons, Thomas and James. In 1797, he con-age, indicates the antiquity of the landmark. He sold Drake's Island in 1652 to John Wakefield. One authority states that Stephen was in Saco as early as 1636; was admitted a free-man that year; married Mary ——— and second Margery ———. Stephen had a grant of land of ten acres in Wells, October 21, 1645; land laid out at Cape Porpoise, December 7, 1672, sold this land to his son John February 8, 1672. This John appears to have been his only son according to his will March 8, 1674, but he mentions daughters Margery wife of Rowland Young; Mary Brookhouse (or Bac-kus, as now spelled) and grandchild John Trott. John married, 1660, Elizabeth, daughter John Saunders, of Wells; was representative to the general assembly at York, 1682-4. He or a son of the same name deeded land at Cape Porpoise to John Fairfield, including a mill privilege on Middle river, Arundel, March 21, 1723; and a John Batson was a ship-builder in 1728 at Wells. Beyond this we have no record of the family. It seems certain that Stephen Batson and Thomas Baston, mentioned below, were of the same family. In the deeds of the Thomas Baston family the name is never spelled Batson, however, but frequently Boston.

(1) Thomas Baston settled in Saco, Maine, as early as 1666, and his descendants have been Stephen Batson, Wells, father of John and Margery. John also has a daughter Margery is married to Rolland Young in 1674.

It is felt that Robert Elliot first child with Margery Batson is born in 1683, he could have had a daughter previously.

John Batson is married to Elizabeth Saunders felt to be the sister of Sarah Saunders who is the widow of Peter Turbet, which Robert Elliot above courted. It is felt that John Batson is the father-in-law to Robert Elliot, so Margery Batson is felt to be a generation younger than, Sarah Saunders.

Batsons, are from Wells, Maine region.

The daughter Margery of Stephen was an indenture.

¹ This and the following depositions probably relate to a matter noticed in the Colony Records. At a Quarter Court at Boston, June 4, 1639, "Henry Laurence was for the p^rsent discharged about Capt. Bonito his servant" (Mass. Records, i. 265). With a mark of contraction over the final o, Captain Bonito may stand for Richard Bonython, or Bonighton, of Saco, and a magistrate there in 1636; and it may be inferred that Margery Batman — brought from Saco by Henry Lawrence in 1638 — was claimed by Captain Bonython as his servant by prior indenture or agreement.

There was a Stephen Batson at Saco in 1636, who had a daughter Margery; he removed to Cape Porpus in 1653 (Folsom, History of Saco, pp. 33, 124). Possibly the two names indicate the same man; but whether Batman or Batson is correct I have no means of deciding. More may be found of Moulton in another connection, post, p. 152.

Felt Margery Batson the daughter of Stephen, was indentured in 1638, so Margery Batson which Robert Elliot married is the daughter of John, Stephen's son, named Margery also which would be Stephen's granddaughter.

Champernowne Elliot the grandson in which father he adopts for the purpose of the will Humphrey is felt to be deceased. If Champernowne had any older brothers they are now deceased. Inheritance goes to the father, if the father is not living then to the oldest living son which the will says in 1686 it is Champernoun Elliot the son of Humphrey.

It should be noted who the friends of Francis Champernowne were;

DOCUMENTARY HISTORY

New Hampshire

New Hampshire is the name of a Province granted to Cap^t Robert Mason about the yeare 1635 and was to begin on the Sea Coast 3 Miles easterly of Merimack River and reaches to Piscatoquay, and 60 miles of that Breath up into the Country, but now it is usurped by the Mattachusets who pretend that it is within their Bounds, and that the People Petitioned to be within their Protection, it is true that difference of Opinion made a Division amongst them, and a few who were for Congregationall Churches did Petition for their Assistance by which occasion partly by force, partly by Composition they haue engrossed the whole and named it Norfolke/

Major John Davis, is felt to be related to Robert Elliot son-in-law through marrying Margery (Batson) Young, widow to Richard Young of Cape Purpose.

Robert Elliot also witnesses the will, as a friend of Capt Francis Champernoun. It is felt that Capt Francis Champernoun, may have had some influential friends.

Genealogy of the Cutts family in America

XIII. ELIZABETH CUTT, daughter of Robert and Mary (Hoel) Cutt, married Humphrey Elliot before July 13, 1685 ; her step-father, Francis Champernowne, gave at that date a deed of land to "Elizabeth Elliot, daughter of Mary, my beloved wife," etc. Her son, Champernowne Elliot, is mentioned in her step-father's will made Nov. 16, 1686. Her husband is thought to have been a son of Robert Elliot of colonial fame, by his first wife, Margery Batson. Some have doubted this, but it seems to be a reasonable conclusion. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot removed to South Carolina, at or about the same time that their brother-in-law, Rev. Wm. Screven, went on account of persecution. After the death of her husband Mrs. Elliot married again, her second husband being Thomas Witherick. It is not known whether her son Champernowne was married or not. He is mentioned in the 3^d volume of the Statutes at large of Tough some feel that Robert Witherick is Mrs. Elliot first husband after Humphrey, it is felt he is actually the second husband after Thomas Witherick, likely a brother to Robert.

It is felt when Humphrey died he left his wife with child. She end up marrying Thomas Witherick, and they named that child after Thomas Witherick, but preferred the name Thomas over Witherick as a first name, unlike using Champernowne. So Champernowne does have a younger brother named Thomas, and Humphrey and Elizabeth have two sons, not Robert and Champernowne, but Champernowne and Thomas.

South Carolina, on page 71 as one of the "Inquirers" as to property subject to taxation for that part of Saint Andrew's parish lying south of Ashley river. This was on Feb. 20, 1719, some thirty odd years after his parents' marriage. In 1729 the following is found on South Carolina Records.*

" Elizabeth Witherick, widow
To

Ann Elliott, wife of Thos. Elliott Sr. Deed of Gift 2 July 1729 of 100 acres in Berkely Co. 'in consideration of love I bear my sister said Ann Elliott.'" Whether Thomas Elliott and Humphrey were brothers may be inferred from this document as above expressed. The descendants of Thomas are numerous. Of the family of Humphrey and Elizabeth Elliott very little indeed is known save that they had two sons and perhaps other children. Mrs. Elliott was living as late as 1729 (then Mrs. Witherick) having become a second time a widow. All known descendants are through her son Robert, who is supposed to have been the Robert who married Elizabeth Screven, in which case it was a marriage of cousins, so common at that time. The Elliots of South Carolina and adjacent states have always been a distinguished family, and it is to be hoped that some day some antiquarian can unravel their family line and give the students of family history a volume worthy of their achievements and fame.

CUTT.

In 1640, one William Cutts was taxed in Saco, Maine. In 1657, John Cutt is first mentioned, as one of the five "selectmen," of Portsmouth. In 1646, Richard Cutt succeeded Sampson Lane in the occupation of what was then known as the "great house," which was built in 1631. It is probable that John, Richard and Robert Cutt came from England to this country prior to 1646. Robert Cutt first went to Barbadoes, afterwards to Portsmouth, living at "Great Island" now known as New Castle. He removed from that place to Kittery, Maine.

Richard Cutt was first a resident of the Isles of Shoals and later removed to Portsmouth. There lived, too, at Portsmouth one John Cutt, Jr., who was probably a nephew of the three brothers. Besides these seven of the name, there was also a sister, Ann Cutt, who married John Skipway, a merchant of Portsmouth.

The earlier record of the family gives the spelling Cutt. It

Ann Cutt recorded as the third marriage to Thomas Elliot which make her Ann Elliot is the sister to Elizabeth Cutt which is known as Elizabeth Witherick.
